THREE EXCELLENCES!

STEININGER - DESIGN, QUALITY & INNOVATION FROM AUSTRIA

STEININGER does excellent work in several respects. Not only that the living creations of the Upper Austrian company through noble minimalism and perfect function convince - even juries awarded by three prizes STEININGER her seal: the GERMAN INNOVATION AWARD, H & D AWARD and the INTERIOR DESIGNER INTERNATIONAL.

EXCELLENT INNOVATION: FOLD WINS THE GERMAN INNOVATION AWARD

Small details can have a big impact, add value, change the user's life, they do not invade and are sustainable. All this aspects has been rewarded by the German Innovation Award. The focus of the renowned jury was on user's orientation, awards are given to solutions from a wide range of industries, including life improvement and shaping the personal future of the user. Every single creation created by STEININGER, that, if you desires this requirement, you will be honored with the German Innovation Award in the "Consumer Excellence" category, for the new kitchen FOLD with M.POD, high-tech surface.

EXCELLENT FUNCTIONALITY: H & D AWARD FOR TONI MÖRWALD'S "HOTEL AM WAGRAM"

For the 8th time, the Hotel & Design Magazine awarded the only Austrian trade journal prize for the upper hotel and gastronomy in connection with architecture and design. The interior design with the kitchen PURE by Martin Steinger became the winning project in the category "Kitchen Design" at the Hotel am Wagram/Feuersbrunn elected.

EXCELLENT INTERNATIONALITY: STEININGER IS THE WINNER OF THE PRIZE „INTERIOR DESIGNER INTERNATIONAL“ LENT FROM FURNITURE & DESIGN GUIDE

As a full service provider - from architecture to interior design to the production of Kitchens, has made STEININGER an international name. STEININGER puts the entire planning and implementation of the projects in constant close dialogue with the client's order.

The prestigious Furniture & Design Guide acts as a high-quality reference book for a sophisticated, design-savvy audience and represents the international design scene and her personalities. The special prize „Interior Designer International“ went to Martin Steininger. The award honors entrepreneurs, those with extraordinary activities and personal accomplishments shape the design landscape.

MARTIN STEININGER IN PORTRAIT

Martin Steininger loves handling materials, feels their substance - he did not choose his profession - he grew up in it. His personal style develops both in family business and in international travel towards purist minimalism. When in the end, at the third generation, he took over the company redesigning it under his vision. He is first internationally known with his concrete kitchens, a name that deals with a completely new approach, representing material, kitchen and life.

Today STEININGER is an international design scene, indispensable as a supplier and developer of innovative architecture and interior concepts.
